ADAPT COMMEMORATING “16 DAYS OF ACTIVISIM” AND ITS 21 ANNIVERSARY THROUGH A SPORTING GOLF EVENT

16 Days of Activism against Gender Violence is an international campaign originating from the first Women’s Global Leadership Institute sponsored by the Centre for Women’s Global Leadership (CWGL) at Rutgers University in 1991. Participants chose the dates November 25 to be the International Day on no Violence against Women, and December 10 as the International Human Rights Day, in order to symbolically highlight women and children’s human rights and to emphasize that violence against women and children is in actual fact a human rights violation.

In commemorating the 16 Days of Activism Campaign, and celebrating its 21 anniversary, ADAPT is inviting stakeholders to join in on the first day of the 16 Days of Activism Campaign. Please come enjoy a round of golf at the Wanderers Golf Club on the 25 November. This initiative is profiled as a Charity Golf Day Challenge and fundraising dinner and it is planned as follows:

Date: Wednesday, 25th November 2015

Venue: Wanderers Golf Club. Cnr Rudd and Corlett Drive, Illovo.

Time: Golf Challenge teeing off: 11h00

Dinner: 18h30

The format is Greensomes.

Definition: Greensomes is a Golf tournament format, or a competition format that groups of four golfers can play, using 2-person teams.

Greensomes (also known as Scotch Foursomes) is a variation of foursomes (2-person teams, each team playing one ball). In Greensomes, both players on a team tee off, the best of the two tee balls is selected and that ball is then played alternate shot until holed.

In regular foursomes, the 2-person team plays alternate shot for the full hole, i.e., only one tee ball is hit.
